

Trevor Kennison - Keene, New Hampshire

Trevor grew up in Keene New Hampshire where he graduated from high school and became a plumber. Snowboarding was his true passion, so Trevor uprooted everything and moved west to Eagle, CO. He remained a plumber full time and still managed to board 65 days that first year. In 2014, Trevor was boarding the early season backcountry on Vail Pass where he clipped an edge, flipped around and fell. It took them over 2 hours to extricate him and after emergency surgery he had 12 screws and two 12-inch rods in his back. But after only a year, Trevor was back on the slopes, thanks to the ongoing support of the High Fives Foundation. Trevor is now at the NSCD Competition Center training full time with a goal of being the first sit-skier to compete in the X-games and to compete in the 2022 Winter Paralympic Games in Beijing.
